

Asbury Public Arts Commission -Minutes

Parlor Gallery

2/21/19

Present Commissioners – Amy Quinn, Marilyn Schlossbach, Mike Sodano, Jenn Hampton, Charles Trott, Ellen Gaynor

Absent – Malcolm Nevis, Michele Alonso, Andrew Pawlin, Patrick Schiavino, Angie Sugrim

Amy Quinn read the APAC Open Public Meeting Act

Minutes from January Meeting were approved

1. Update on Beach Lockers

Boys and Girls Club painting of beach lockers was taking place.

Marilyn Schlossbach was in attendance. Amy Quinn, Marilyn Schlossbach and Lisa Badach made a plea for additional adult supervision and to give guidance. Andre Pawlin has been assisting at the Boys and Girls club. In addition, George Bates has been there. Painting takes place on Tuesday 4:30-6 PM at the Boys and Girls Club facility.

2. Photography Camp – Amy Quinn spoke of space in Senor Center, Springwood Avenue in the Arts & Crafts room, end of August. A budget is needed for banners at train station that will display the art work. Andrew Pawlin said there is money from Porch Fest. An application for students still needs to be developed.

3. City Hall mural is slated for September.

4. New Business –

The Commission discussed 1% for the arts. Morristown, NJ requires developers to give 1% in support of public art for redevelopment. Commission would like to explore the same for Asbury Park. Waterfront Redevelopment Plan would be outside of that requirement.

Arts Commission should reach to Interfaith Neighbors and Monmouth Arts for grants.

Yvonne Clayton suggest that Springwood Avenue Park backdrop should have a mural.

Public Comments

Greg Pilling, Lisa Badach and MaryEileen Fouratt were in attendance.

Greg suggested Asbury Alive have chalk murals installation.

Meeting adjourned at 6:50pm