Meeting called to order By Chairlady Ginny Otley

Members Present: Ginny Otley, Secretary Ed Salvas, Station Mgr. Nate McCallister, Deputy Mayor Amy Quinn, Muata Greene

Absent: Danielle Bulluck, Michelle Gladden

Minutes of the July 20 meeting were approved by a voice vote, motion by Ms. Otley, 2nd by Nate McCallister.

Update from Station Manager Nate McCallister:

Two high school volunteers have joined APTV and have assisted on National Night Out and will also assist in editing. Another volunteer wants to assist in Producing programs for APTV.

Equipment for the new Beach Cam has arrived, but not the camera itself. Nate hopes to install the cam by the end of summer.

New mics have been placed in the Council Chambers, there are also headphones available at meetings for the hearing impaired. Videos on National Night Out and Beach Safety will be completed soon.

A new ad for Media Techs did not bring in any prospective candidates.

Jersey Access Group (JAG)

Ed Salvas reported on the JAG Awards, APTV won five awards, including two Awards of Excellence for "A Conversation with the Mayor" and "Meteorological Spring," and three Awards of Recognition for "Preserving Wesley Lake," "Women's History, Her Story," and "A Segregated Seashore." The City Council will recognize the winners at its meeting on September 28.

JAG will also hold its first in person luncheon meeting in two years on Sept. 28 at Varto Electronics in E. Rutherford.

The long-running program "Aging Insights" for seniors has been added to the APTV Schedule

OLD BUSINESS

Discussion of a forum or debate for the November Election continued, Deputy Mayor Amy Quinn will take a leave of absence from APTV until then.

NEW BUSINESS – None proposed. Minutes prepared by Ed Salvas, Secretary APTV
