  1. Briefing on concept plan for mural wall at 722 Cookman by Jennifer Hampton
The construction fence in the street in the 700 Block of Cookman Avenue was discussed as a location for temporary murals. Various ideas were discussed including sticker art and community art. Two ideas emerged as implementable -ask around if a local muralist would like to take on this project for the Fall and volunteer to paint a mural. In the Spring, it would be replaced by a community art project "Love Letters to Asbury Park.' The art commission would gather messages about Asbury Park and the messages would be wheat pasted onto the fence as an event.

2. Discussion on possible placements of art work of Joe Harvard -It is currently with a private citizen. Jenn will put them in touch with Michele Alonso who would like to try to have some pieces installed in Art Park.

5. Public Comment Session -Ernest Mignoli commented that his unit is for sale and he plans on moving out of the City.
